

CEF Assessment Criteria

		Student's name
Component	Descriptor
Informal discussion	Can account for and sustain his / her opinions in discussion by providing relevant explanations, arguments, and comments.
Vocabulary control	Lexical accuracy is generally high, though some confusion and incorrect word choice does occur without hindering communication.
Phonological control	Has acquired a clear, natural pronunciation and intonation.
		1 = more work needed				2 = acceptable				3 = good				4 = very good											